UNIT: Human Resources	AVAILABLE VACANCIES: 1
LOCATION: Quakerbridge Plaza, Trenton, NJ	SALARY RANGE: TO BE DETERMINED

JOB DESCRIPTION:

Under the direction of the Chief of Staff, the Director of Human Resources provides leadership, oversight, and operational direction for all human resources functions within the New Jersey Higher Education Student Assistance Authority (HESAA). The Director ensures that the Authority’s human resources policies, programs, and practices support organizational effectiveness, workforce development, and compliance with applicable laws, including New Jersey Civil Service regulations.

The Director serves as the Authority’s principal advisor on human resources administration and advises executive leadership on personnel management, labor relations, workforce planning, and organizational development. The role is responsible for aligning human resources operations with statewide policies and the Authority’s strategic and operational objectives.

Key Responsibilities:

- Manages the day-to-day operations of the Human Resources function while establishing strategic direction for workforce planning, employee relations, labor relations, and personnel administration.
- Oversees the development, implementation, and administration of human resources policies, programs, and procedures to ensure compliance with Civil Service regulations and applicable laws.
- Provides strategic consultation to executive leadership on personnel matters, organizational structure, and workforce strategy.
- Directs and oversees all human resources functions, including recruitment, classification, compensation, benefits coordination, employee relations, labor relations, and personnel transactions.
- Ensures proper administration of personnel actions, including appointments, promotions, reclassifications, disciplinary actions, and separations, in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.
- Serves as the primary liaison with the New Jersey Civil Service Commission, the Office of Employee Relations, and other State oversight entities on matters related to classification, examinations, recruitment, labor relations, disciplinary actions, and personnel policy administration.
- Ensures compliance with Title 4A of the New Jersey Administrative Code, collective bargaining agreements, and applicable employment laws.
- Provides authoritative interpretation of personnel policies, Civil Service rules, and employment laws to management and staff.
- Provides leadership and oversight of employee relations and labor relations activities, including workplace investigations, grievance administration, disciplinary actions, and interpretation of collective bargaining agreements.
- Identifies and mitigates workforce-related risks through policy development, training, and proactive management practices.
- Plans, organizes, and directs the work of Human Resources staff, including assigning work, establishing priorities, evaluating performance, and supporting professional development.
- Promotes a culture of professionalism, accountability, and continuous improvement within the HR function.
- Leads workforce planning initiatives, including succession planning, organizational design, and workforce restructuring efforts to support the Authority’s operational and long-term strategic needs.
- Participates in executive-level discussions and contributes to organizational policy, governance, and strategic planning initiatives.
- Oversees the administration of employee leave programs, including FMLA, NJFLA, ADA accommodations, and other applicable programs.
- Oversees employee training and professional development initiatives to support workforce capability and leadership development.
- Ensures accurate maintenance of personnel records and workforce data and prepares reports to support executive decision-making.
- Maintains strict confidentiality and exercises sound judgment in handling sensitive personnel matters.
- Performs other duties and special projects as assigned by executive leadership.
